Anna (Smalley) Donaldson Headstone Dedication
June 9, 2024, 12pm-4pm
Evergreen Cemetery, Everett, WA

Attendees include Anna Donaldson's extended family of descendants, family friends, fellow Washington State Black Pioneer families, community members and press.

This **free** public event celebrates Anna (Smalley) Donaldson (1856-1904), a Black woman whose family of 10 was recruited from the deep South to break a white coal miner's strike in Roslyn, WA in the 1890s, and the enduring legacy of the hundreds of Black families who joined them.

All attendees have the opportunity to enjoy sponsored Soulfusion catered lunch - supporting a local Black-owned business with a reception to follow the dedication program.
